

HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT

JPR Services (Welwyn) Ltd aims to protect its workers as much as possible and will take all Health and Safety matters very seriously and we outline some key points below in order to achieve this goal:

Health and Safety is a two-way process between JPR Services and its employees

KEY POINTS:

1. Talk to each other about health and safety matters.
2. Listen to their concerns and raise your concerns.
3. Seek and share views and information.
4. Consider what your workers say before you make decisions.
5. All matters regarding Health and Safety are relayed to employees via staff briefings and follow up emails and suitable signage located within the workplace.
